Card From President Dudley.

It may tend somewhat to relieve public apprehension to know that we have a self imposed quarantine upon all persons connected with the A. & M. college. The writer, the teachers and students, excepting those who do not board with us, are quite generally refraining from visiting the city for the present. The minimum number requisite for the conduct of business only leave the campus.

The rumor that we have one or two new cases has no foundation other than that in making our daily inspections, we are late any one who is in any wise sick until the doctor can positively determine that it is not small-pox. We released a boy yesterday, whom we had been detaining for fear of trouble. We have had no other than the first case already reported.

Since Dr. Wertenbaker stated that no one could tell how long the immunity of a vaccination would last; that he himself was regularly vaccinated four times a year, and advised that a person should get vaccinated every time there was an epidemic in his locality, we have preferred to have everyone vaccinated with the minimum number without reference to the past. A refusal to comply with a request of this tenor has led to the discharge of one of our employees. Two others have been excused from vaccination because they produced certificates signed by a physician of this city, stating that re-vaccination now is unnecessary. While we are disposed to respect the written opinion of any reputable physician of the city, we would respectfully request that no more opinions be given to any attacks of the A. & M. College, unless the physician is absolutely sure that his opinion is not unnecessarily exposing us to danger.

Respectfully,
Jas. B. Dudley.

The proprietor of the Gate City Steam Laundry has taken every precaution in regard to disinfection and vaccination, and in order to remove all doubts, called in Dr. James E. Brooks who made a thorough inspection, and pronounces everything all right. There is no better place to which you can send your clothes and avoid danger than the Gate City Steam Laundry.

A STOCK EXCHANGE RUMOR*Says Ladysmith Has Been Relieved*GEN. WARREN REPORTED KILLED

But Most of the News is Unofficial and Therefore Entitled to Many Grains of Allowance.

By Cable to the Telegram

London, Jan. 19--It is rumored on the stock exchange today that after eighteen hours fighting Ladysmith has been relieved, and that General Warren has been killed. Nothing, however, tending to verify the rumor, is obtainable. The report has had no appreciable effect on stocks.

Official despatches from General Buller report the report of the relief of Ladysmith not at all unlikely, but experts are not inclined to accept it as true until the war office confirms the news.

TWENTY BOERS KILLED.

London, Jan. 19--The war office today issued a bulletin stating that a detachment from General Warren, dated last night says that Lord Dundonald's forces had a battle with the Boers yesterday west of Acton Holmes. General Warren reinforced him and they drove the Boers back, occupying the Kopjes about the town and holding the positions captured. The Boer command had twenty men killed and fifteen captured. The British loss was slight.

BALLOON INVESTIGATIONS.

Spearman's Camp, Jan. 18--(Delayed)--A war balloon today made two ascents locating Boer positions, which they had masked all day by refusing to return the fire of British guns. Lytleton's brigade was pushed forward today and is close to the Boer trenches. The two armies are now in touch and began to exchange a rifle fire tonight. Under cover of the firing General Buller pushed his line out ready for an attack but not a shot came back from the Boers.

Capetown, Jan. 19--The Onstand continues its unfavorable deductions, based on the absence of news from Ladysmith and Kimberly. It derides the assistance the colonies are lending the empire, declaring it is based on business rather than patriotism.

The paper also publishes a letter referring to rumors of the murder of wounded Derivishes by British troops and Soudans and asks if similar deeds will occur here. All these comments are skillfully calculated to increase the unrest of the colonial Boers.

London, Jan. 19--A dispatch to the Times from Cape Town says British yeomanry will be mixed with detachments of local mounted infantry in order to learn appropriate tactics for fighting the Boers.

London, Jan. 19--A cabinet meeting was held today for the purpose of arranging a legislative program for the coming session of parliament and to outline the queen's speech.

Messages from the front appear to confirm the general impression that events in Natal will now move quickly. There is nothing up to the present to support the story that the relief of Ladysmith is an accomplished fact, but it is believed from excellent authority that the situation is now regarded at the war office with entire confidence and that the beleaguered town is considered practically relieved although there is no attempt to underestimate the danger and difficulty of General Buller's task.

It Is Untrue.

The Telegram--The report said to be in circulation at Greensboro and elsewhere that there is smallpox at Oak Ridge and vicinity is absolutely untrue. Not a single student at Oak Ridge Institute is absent from his classes from any sickness whatever.

Respectfully,

Thanks to Morgan.

Winston will hold a mass meeting tonight at which Senator Morgan, of Alabama, will be thanked for his speech in favor of the North Carolina constitutional amendment and against Pritchard's resolutions. Many of such meetings will arouse a Morgan boom for something, at least so far as this state is concerned. We are all grateful to the distinguished Alabamian for his efforts in our behalf. Let her boom.

CRAWFORD-PEARSON CONTEST*Will Pearson be Seated?--Other Washington Happenings.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, Jan. 19--The case of Pearson against Crawford, from the Ninth congressional district of North Carolina, had a hearing in committee on elections, number 3, which has jurisdiction of the case, on Wednesday. The charges made in the case are well known, and the arguments were along the same lines as the testimony which has been introduced in the case, involving the charges of fraud and intimidation against Mr. Crawford. The case of Pearson against Crawford, however, seemed to prevail around the committee room that the republican majority have already made up their minds in the case, and that when the decision is announced that the report made to the house of representatives will be adverse to the seating of Mr. Crawford, and that Mr. Pearson, the ex-representative from the Ninth district will be seated.

If the report of the committee is favorable to Mr. Pearson, Mr. Crawford will not have much show of retaining the seat.

The case of Dockery against Bellamy has not yet been heard by the committee, but will come up before long. The charges against Mr. Bellamy are practically the same as in the case of Crawford. It is the opinion of most members of the house interested that the reports of the committee in both of these North Carolina cases will be in favor of the seating of the sitting members, and the seating of the contestants.

The case of General Walker, of Virginia, against Judge Rhea will be heard at an early date. It was expected that the case would be fixed yesterday by the committee to which it has been referred.

The case of Senator Quay will not come before the senate for some time. It has been stated that both of the Virginia senators, and the North Carolina senators were favorable to the Pennsylvania, but investigation does not bear out this statement. It is very probable that Senator Pritchard will vote in favor of the admission of Senator Quay, but Butler, it is said, will not do so. Senators Daniel and Martin will also probably vote in the negative when it comes to the ex-senator's admission. Unless Quay gets some democratic votes, it is not believed that he can be seated, as a majority of the republicans appear to be against his admission to the governor's certificate.

Senator Martin, of Virginia, has returned to Washington from a short trip to Richmond, where he went with Mrs. Martin the latter part of last week. Mrs. Martin held her first reception of the season at the Hotel Gordon, where she and the senator are stopping this session.

Among prominent North Carolina people in the senate yesterday was Rev. Dr. Carmichael, who is here on some personal business requiring his attention.

Mr. Luther H. Burton, of Richmond, was in Washington the other day. He has accepted a position at Palm Beach, Fla., as private secretary to the manager of the Royal Poinciana Hotel at that Florida resort.

Philip H. Lybrook has received his commission from the postoffice department as postmaster at Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Phidilia P. Evans has been commissioned postmaster at Flat Rock, North Carolina.

W. M. Giles, of Charlotte, was in Washington yesterday.

Among other North Carolina people in Washington yesterday were Messrs. H. J. Harrison, of Asheville and L. C. Wagner, of Statesville. The former registered as the National, and the latter at the Metropolitan.

It Is Reported and Denied That He Is Short to an Alarming Extent.

Paris, Jan. 18--Papers here state that Count Boni De Castellane, who married Miss Anna Gould, of New York, was declared short in his margins on the Bourse yesterday. It is variously estimated that the count needs from three to twenty million francs. The Figaro states that the count and countess have gone to America to raise money.

Count De Castellane's father emphatically denies the stories. The Castellanes sailed for the United States last Saturday.

Winston, Jan. 19--News has reached here of a serious cutting affray, which took place at Walnut Cove last night. W. P. FRIDAY, JAN. 19, 1900.

Let democrats remember that the election comes earlier than usual this year, and it is high time now, to begin to cast about for the right men to be selected for standard bearers. The convention is to be held in April and is only about three months off. Name your men.

Quarantining against smallpox is like covering a house with pine tops, it does no good. The disease will leak through any quarantine on earth. The only safe quarantine, according to the government expert, is vaccination. It is therefore important to be vaccinated.

We see it stated that a party of southern capitalists have formed, a company to establish a textile mill in New England. They evidently see things in a different light from most people. New England capitalists have been, and are now, coming south to manufacture cotton fabrics in order to save the expense of freight on raw material and to get the advantage of cheaper labor.

It looks now like the British are gaining ground in South Africa. Buller and Warren have crossed Tugela and the march for the relief of Ladysmith has begun, and it is even hinted that fighting is now going on, and a great battle is expected. News from London is to the effect that a big British victory is expected. There is also some intimation that the Boers are strongly entrenched, and it may be as well to await definite news of the struggle.

It is a small matter, but as small matters are as easy to get wrong as more important things, it may as well be noticed. The practice some newspapers have of taking matter from other papers without giving credit, is what we refer to. For instance, the item about the number of tickets sold at the Greensboro passenger station, was first published in the Telegram several days ago, and now we see it copied close to home and credit given to a paper in another town. News stealing is not punishable like stealing sheep, but the principle is the same.

FAKE WAR NEWS.

Fall of Ladysmith and the Capture of Aguinado.

Washington, Jan. 18.—The official telegraph office of the war department received a dispatch this afternoon over the press bulletin wire, saying that Ladysmith had fallen and that Aguinado had been captured. The dispatch bore no date line. Inquiries were made to learn the basis of the dispatch, and the secretary of war was informed by New York officers of both cable companies that no such message had been received over their wires today. The press association to which the war department attributed the dispatch repudiated the responsibility for it. Investigation is being made to discover how the dispatch came to be sent over the press bulletin wire.

The message received by the war department was as follows:

"It is rumored that Ladysmith has surrendered and that Buller has been trapped after crossing the river."

"It is also stated that Aguinado, with body guard of fifty men, has surrendered to General Schwan and is now enroute to Manila under escort."

MURDER AT MIDNIGHT

Another Crime in Smoky Hollow's Dark Record.

Durham, N. C., Jan. 18.—When Durham people awoke this morning it was to face another tragedy—another murder in that locality which has so long been a disgrace to the county and ordinary civilization.

Some time after the midnight hour had struck it was reported to police headquarters that a man had been shot in "Smoke." Police officers and Coroner J. Frank Madry were quickly on the scene. They found Willard Sherron, a white man about twenty years old, prone on the ground in front of a house occupied by Henry Hampton, colored, mortally wounded, and George Warring leaning against a fence near by, badly wounded.

Dr. N. M. Johnson was summoned at once and examined the wounded men. Warring was sent to the police station in a carriage and Sherron taken up and carried into the house of Henry Hampton, where Doctors Johnson and Adams did what was possible.

After it was ascertained that there was no chance for his recovery he also was removed to the police station, attended by both physicians.

Sherron made several statements as to who shot him, his mind apparently wandering, his last being that he did not know who shot him. He died at 4:02 o'clock this morning.

At the request of Coroner Madry a postmortem was held in the mayor's office this morning at ten o'clock, and the hearing before the coroners jury was set for 2 p. m.

Between the time of the tragedy and daylight the police arrested several parties supposed to be connected with the crime, but all were released save George Martin and Henry Hampton, who were held to await developments before the coroners jury.

Warring, who is resting on a bed in the police station, said at noon today that while he and Sherron had stopped in front of the house of Addie Guder, where there was music and dancing, a negro man came and commenced cursing and abusing them; that when they resented it the negro commenced shooting; that he grabbed the negro and threw him to the ground, and was on top when from beneath the negro shot him, threw him off and ran. He did not know the negro and could only give a partial description of him.

The officers were confident all the morning that they had arrested the murderer, but a complication comes in the fact that soon after the crime Ed McClure, colored, who worked for B. W. Berry, stole Mr. Berry's horse and left for parts unknown. McClure had the key to the stable and the fact, coupled with those that he is gone and the key left in the lock, settles the theft of the horse upon him, and is strong circumstantial evidence to connect him with the murder.

When this affair came to be known to Judge Moon he requested the grand jury to continue its sittings through the week, with the hope that the murderer might be apprehended and tried at this term of court.

So far as developments go, it appears that both Sherron and Warring were sober and peaceful citizens and that the only offense they committed was in stopping to listen to the music going on in a negro house near the path.

While the coroner and town authorities were holding possession on the lower floor of the court house, investigating the murder in "Smoke," up stairs Judge Moon was trying a case which, if possible, was worse than any murder ever committed here or elsewhere—the case of the state vs. Edward McClureham for assault and attempted rape of his twelve-year-old step-daughter. This case occupied the morning session of court.—Special to Morning Post.

He Only Repeats What has been Around th World.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state in the union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher, of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

"You can't see the editor for three hours," said the office boy to the professional humorist; "do you want to wait?" The professional humorist tapped his brow thoughtfully. "Ha! I have it!" he exclaimed. "I'll go out and get my hair cut, and perhaps that will reduce my weight."

Lewis Dennis, Salem, Ind., says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure did me more good than anything I ever took." It digests what you eat and cannot be hurt, but cures dyspepsia and stomach troubles. Howard Gardner.

GREAT BATTLE IMMINENT.

General Buller's Whole Army Expected to be in Action.

London, Jan. 19, 4 a. m.—Military critics in affiliation with the war office, consider that the expected battle, along the wide and south and west of Ladysmith, can hardly be delayed beyond today. From Durban it is reported that fighting has already begun. General Buller's forces, engaged in the flanking operation across the Tugela, are some 13,000 or 14,000 bayonets, 1,200 horses and 40 guns. The disposition of his other 15,000 or 20,000 men is not known, although the assumption is that the whole army will be in action when the hour for combined movement arrives.

Some weeks ago General Buller had 30,000 men. Considerable reinforcements have since reached him, giving him, probably 35,000 men and 80 guns, all told. Estimates of how many men and guns the Boers have to oppose him are mere guess work. In not replying to General Buller's challenge they are using the tactics that proved so successful in the battles of Magersfontein and Colenso—lying low in their trenches and thus hoping to conceal their precise position until the infantry advances.

The Daily Chronicle's military expert sees a curious analogy between General Buller's situation now and the eve of Magersfontein. Now, as then, the Boers are making a stand with their backs to the investing lines within a few miles. As Lord Methuen, after crossing Modder river, had to attack the Spitskop and Magersfontein hills, so General Buller, after passing the Tugela, faces invisible entrenchments in a rough country.

One correspondent mentions General Buller's wheeled transport of 5,000 vehicles which connects him with the railroad about 30 miles to the rear. Among these vehicles are 30 traction engines, which draw from ten to fifteen wagons each.

General Buller's warning about the misuse of the white flag by the Boers in his proclamation to the troops is considered a rather broad hint to give no quarter. His phrase "There will be no turning back" is played upon editorially by the morning papers as promising cheerful announcements.

The absorbing interest felt in the invasion in Natal makes other points in the theatre of war seem microscopic. Lord Methuen lies behind his works at Modder river. It is estimated that his forces will have to be nearly or quite doubled before he can relieve Kimberley.

British reinforcements are moving towards General French at Rensburg. With these he is expected to advance. General Gatacre's men on the right of the Tugela, are advancing.

The war office announces that next week there will be embarked 72 guns, 3,710 men and 2,210 horses. This is the largest consignment of artillery ever sent abroad. The war office invites 500 volunteers for a sharpshooters battalion of yeomanry.

THE RELIGIOUS QUESTION.

Overshadowing Insurance in the Philippines.

Manila, Friday, Jan. 19.—The religious question is overshadowing the insurance. The opening of the provinces has forced the issue concerning the friars and church ownership. Several months ago General Otis was assured by prominent Filipinos that if he would shut his eyes and their difficulties would be speedily ended, meaning that the friars would be expelled or murdered. Otis condemned the proposition and warned the proposers against violence. While the necessity to meet the religious issue is recognized an effort is being made to conciliate the people until the insurance is completely suppressed.

An expedition under Major Kobbe sailed today for the purpose of opening a number of ports and establishing civil governments in them. Merchants are taking the fullest advantage of the opening of the ports. No news has been received from a number of hemp plantations for a year.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

A resolution adopted by the Chicago (Ill.) board of trade makes trading in puts and calls in the exchange room a dishonorable transaction.

A bill introduced in the Ohio legislature provides that women shall in all cases receive the same pay for their work as men doing the same work.

Baldness Can be Cured

just so long as there is a particle of vitality left in the hair roots. The fact that the hair is smooth and shining is no positive proof that the roots are dead.

Deep down beneath the skin, hair roots may yet exist, filled with latent vitality, and all that is required to develop them into beautiful head of hair is the faithful application of the proper agent.

Seven—Sutherland Sisters' preparations furnish the easiest, surest and quickest way to ascertain there is or is not latent life beneath a head bare of hair. Why not try them?

THE TIDE HAS TURNED

British War Officials Are Now More Hopeful.

London, Jan. 18.—The officials of the war office here are satisfied that the tide has turned and that news of a more hopeful character from a British point of view will hereafter be the rule instead of the exception. That the British advance in a northeasterly direction will be fiercely resisted, is fully anticipated. The Boer strength is probably superior to the British and the dispatches show the burghers occupy strong positions.

There is some doubt as to whether the Spruen kop occupied by General Warren is identical with Spion kop. If so the British are within a few miles of Action Homes. The scene of the earlier conflicts between General Buller's forces and the invading Free States, whence there is a good road direct to Ladysmith. While Gen. Warren's force was crossing the Tugela river, the Boers occupied a thickly wooded plantation a mile north of the river and sent several bodies into the advance guard. The British replied and the artillery opened on a neighboring kopje. As the British pushed across the river, the Boers pushed across the river, the Boers found their position uncomfortable and retired to the hills. Immediately after the poston bridge was completed, the whole British force crossed. Meanwhile the naval guns on Swartz kop have been persistently shelling the Boer entrenchments facing the kopje occupied by Lyttleton's brigade.

The war office has received a dispatch giving the same details from Gen. Roberts, commander-in-chief, dated Cape Town, today.

CONSOLIDATION BLOCKED.

Thomas F. Ryan Files an Amended Bill.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 18.—Thomas F. Ryan, of New York, is giving John Skelton Williams and other promoters of the Seaboard Air Line consolidation scheme more trouble. He returned to the attack in the United States court today, the time set for entering formal order, denying application for injunction, and filed a supplemental and amended bill, for injunction to prohibit consolidation. His grounds are that the defendants in resisting the previous application, took the position that no authority for consolidation existed, and none was contemplated, and the legislature has since passed a bill authorizing it. Judge Waddell entered an order adjourning further hearing to next Tuesday at Richmond, and that in the meantime the status of the Seaboard and Roanoke railroad, under the said legislative act, shall remain as at present. This block further consolidation temporarily.

A L and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Iowa, writing of his almost miraculous escape from death says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

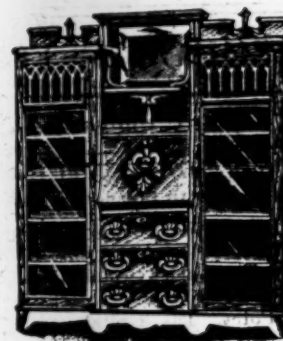

Silliness—"You can't tell much about a man's financial condition by the clothes he wears." Cyclus—"No; you must see his wife's clothes."

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on C. E. Holton, druggist, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Dr. Chas. Scott went to Mebane this morning.
The advice of Dr. Dellinger in yesterday's paper is good and should be acted upon.
O. Williams and J. B. Stroud, two of Greensboro's most popular men, went south this morning.

W. G. Mebane came up from Graham last night and returned on the belated noon train today.

Hudson, on the hill, has the stuff from which to make a selection for a good Sunday dinner. See ad.

For Saturday Smith & Murchison announce a lot of fresh eatables in their advertisement today. Read it.

Miss Mary Petty, a teacher in the State Normal and Industrial college, went to Bennettsville today to spend a few days visiting.

Miss Olive Guerrant, of Danville, to the delight of her many friends in this city, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Longest, on Blainwood avenue.

The sale of lots belonging to Miss Anna Dick will take place tomorrow, as advertised. There are two lots on North Davis street and one on North Elm.

Architect H. J. Blauvelt, of Winston, was here today, and has placed a card in the Telegram, to which we call the attention of those intending to build.
Don't forget that tomorrow is the last day of the 20 per cent. reduction sale at Kaufmann's. If you want bargains you had better call tomorrow as this is positively the last day of this sale.
James Young, the polished young actor, who so delighted Greensboro people two years ago, will appear here again soon in a new play written especially for him, and in which he is said to be perfectly "at home." We predict that a full house will greet him on his return.

Small Box Found.

There was nothing in it, but if you will read an announcement in the upper right hand corner on the front page of this paper, you will find food for thought and raiment for the body.

The Situation Today.

The smallpox situation in this city today remains unchanged. None of cases heretofore reported are serious and no new cases have been discovered. The work of inspection and vaccination goes steadily on.

School No. 3.

City School No. 3, at the Normal College, will reopen on Jan. 30. No pupil will be admitted who does not present a physician's certificate stating that he has been successfully vaccinated during the past twelve months. By order of the board of education. J. H. W. W. E. Stone, Pres.

THE QUARANTINE FENCE

Ten to One That This Man Got Through Easily.

There was a man here today who wanted to go to a point in Chatham county. He was advised of the fact that Chatham was quarantined against Guilford and that it would be necessary to have a health certificate in order to land on Chatham soil. It was nearly train time and the man was lost in study a moment. He approached the ticket office and bought a ticket to a station in Randolph county. As the train pulled out he remarked to a bystander that he could get a ticket to Randolph unless Chatham quarantined against that county before he got there.

And when you think about it he is right. And if not this he could get private conveyance and get through. This is where the force of the quarantine law comes in. It may be a little more expensive to the traveler, but if he wants to go he can go. It is like watching the big road for an escaped prisoner, and leaving miles and miles of woods for the man to escape through.

FOOT BADLY LASHED.

An Employee of the Southern Gets Painfully Hurt.

Last night Mr. A. A. Kite, an employee of the Southern Railway, was the victim of an accident on the yards in this city. He was climbing the end of a box-car which was being shifted, when by some means his hold was broken and he fell to the track in front of the moving train. He was quick enough to save his body from being crushed, but his foot was caught and badly mashed.

Dr. Broadnax, the railway physician, attended him, and thinks there is a possibility of saving the foot. It was a narrow escape, and is an additional warning to trainmen to ever be cautious.

ANOTHER COTTON MILL.

To Be Erected in Montgomery on Little River, Near Troy.

City Engineer, J. M. Bandy, of this place and W. R. Richardson, county roads engineer for Guilford county, have been for several days surveying water power, location, etc., for the Capel-Cotton Mill Company. They located the dam and canal and found the water power all that was desired.

The company is placing the material on the ground preparatory to putting up the buildings at once, and expect to have the spindles running by the first of October. The houses for mill operatives are already in process of erection. The company is a strong one. The site is on Little River four miles south of Troy. Two other cotton mills will be put up just below this one.

Charleston proposes to have an industrial exposition next year.

New lot E. Z. waists, new percales, new 30 cent dress plaids, new navy blue mohairs, new black and white mohair, new ready-to-use pillow cases, sheets and roller towels just opened at Thacker & Brookmann.

The public are invited to examine and see the Coal Saver and Heat Regulator in operation at the McAdoo House from 11 a. m. till 4 p. m. tomorrow.
